

CARE/SHARE

Vocabulary and Comprehension Questions

Name _____

Vocabulary: Recreationists, Livestock, Coexist, Drainage, Trailhead

Questions

1. Gretchen Hyde says “Idaho's rangelands are a great playground and a very important work place”? What do the words “playground” and “work place” mean here?
2. What issues do the CARE/SHARE signs address?
3. Who partners in the CARE/SHARE program?
4. What are some methods of informing people about livestock before they go out to recreate?
5. Where are CARE/SHARE signs used to provide information?
6. What do the start and stop dates on CARE/SHARE signs mean?

7. What other information is customized to an individual site on a sign?

8. How can pet owners avoid negative interactions with guard dogs?

9. How can mountain bikers avoid negative interactions with guard dogs?

10. Describe some evidence shown during the video that the CARE/SHARE program is working.

KEY

Questions

1. Gretchen Hyde says “Idaho's rangelands are a great playground and a very important work place”? What do the words “playground” and “work place” mean here?

Playground means a place where people go to recreate and relax, work place means it's where some people earn their living

2. What issues do the CARE/SHARE signs address?
The presence of livestock and when they will be there, guard dogs, opening and closing gates, private property, leashing pets
3. Who partners in the CARE/SHARE program?
Idaho Rangeland Resource Commission, BLM, Forrester service, Idaho Department of lands, Idaho Department of Fish and Game
4. What are some methods of informing people about livestock before they go out to recreate?

Signs, websites, phone calls

5. Where are CARE/SHARE signs used to provide information?

At trailheads

6. What do the start and stop dates on CARE/SHARE signs mean?
Between those dates, livestock will be on the land in that area.
7. What other information is customized to an individual site on a sign?
A contact phone number
8. How can pet owners avoid negative interactions with guard dogs?

Keeps pets on leash

9. How can mountain bikers avoid negative interactions with guard dogs?
Getting off their bikes and walking through the sheep herd
10. Describe some evidence shown during the video that the CARE/SHARE program is working.
The story of the man and his son who were mountain biking, encountered a sheep herd, and knew to get off their bikes around the guard dogs.
Reduction in complaints from people enjoying recreation on public lands